Dear Honorable Sir,

Today, doors will open for you by the Hand of Almighty God to the candidacy of the most important and influential position in God's world and creation. Upon your inauguration in January 2009, you will and should be empowered by the Holy Spirit, Father, Jesus Christ, God in the Flesh.

Today, upon your prior resignation from the Christian church you attended for many years, has become a void in your spiritual life. Great men of history always have a mentor and spiritual guidance. You know – or should know – regardless of fulfilling a political office that you are serving God, a country He has blessed to fulfill His will on this earth. You are a Christian and a believer in Jesus Christ, this I know. Even if you have chosen another to replace your former mentor, spiritual advisor, I personally volunteer to be a spiritual advisor and mentor through Christ.

After prayer, we should realize your additional mentor should have qualifications and studies in theology covering historic Christianity from 33 A.D., the original Orthodoxy (True Doctrine), as well as contemporary (neo-Christian theology) both in the African-American and white Caucasian Christian communities. These qualifications I have in both doctorate degrees in theology and philosophy, as well as ordination in the Orthodox community. I hope you choose a traditional member whose roots extend back to the First Christians to forego any controversy to where you have been the last few years.

I wish to adopt you as my spiritual son in Christianity to pray for you and offer you spiritual advice when asked, and most certainly for your personal safety.

Enclosed is a photo of my adopted child – who was named after me, Haralambos – in Ghana, Africa, an Orthodox mission we have as a satellite college, St. Michael Academy of Eschatology.

The Lord Jesus Christ, in my position as Archbishop of an important jurisdiction, has placed Christian love in my heart for you, Michelle and your two children. God can use more than one Christian clergyman to help guide and pray for you to do the most important fulfillment as President of the United States of America to do His Perfect Will.
