One would wonder what the Book of Revelation in the Bible and the magazine called God's Ocean/Theou Thalasa authored by Haralambos have in common. Both are eschatological and work in tandem.

For those of you who may not be familiar with the word "Eschatology", it means simply, "The End Times". It is the waiting for the last days' events to occur in the world. These events are written prophetically in The Holy Bible, inspired by The Holy Spirit of God The Father and the fulfillment of these events cause the Return of The Lord Jesus Christ to end all wickedness and to rule the earth from Jerusalem in TRUE PEACE.

The Book of Revelation is the least read book of the Bible and also the least understood. It is also so very important to read and to understand this book as the events unfold before our very eyes in the world's current events. The Book of Revelation's being and purpose is a prophetic record and announcement to the world, and to the Church of The Lord JeXc, Jesus Christ.

Its chapters are relevant to our times - the End Times. The record of His Word is an accurate one and will come to pass. The Lord is warning all people to repent and to prepare themselves for His Return.

the up-and-coming events in our times, in these end times. The awesome wisdom and the great patience of The Lord are written in these pages. In God's Ocean/Theou Thalasa, Our Lord communicates His greatness by manifesting a true event in history from 1656 to the present day and future. This is a testimony to the all - Sovereignty of God and His Mysteries.

God's Ocean by Hara/Lambos -VOLUME I
THE KING'S MARAVILLAS -A LOVE STORY

THE HISTORICAL ACCOUNT OF THE NUESTRA SENORA DE LA MARAVILLAS*

"It all started in the 1600s," Archbishop Haralambos writes, "culminating with the splintering apart of the Senora de la Maravillas, a ship from King Phillip IV of Spain, which was carrying a solid gold statue that weighed as much as 1,800 pounds." Archbishop Haralambos then recounts the following story, which he gleaned from the Spanish Archives at Seville, Spain.

"The year was 1621, and at the age of 16, a regal young heir became King Phillip IV, King of Spain, His reign was to last 44 years, and he was to father the last of the Hapsburgs, the reigning descendants of Spain. During the 1600s the morals of the Capital and the lush ostentatious Court would have made all the forefathers and kings blush. ... Those were the times of rampant immorality, and the kingdom of Spain was fertile ground for the seeds of the devil.

King Phillip IV was a pleasure-loving king. Because he was so young, King Phillip appointed the Duke of Oliverez to head all of Spain's councils. This made the Duke the real ruler of Spain and her possessions. Ripples of scandal and discontent affected everyone during the 20 years that the Duke of Olivarez was in power. It was at this time that our true and mysterious story of the "Golden Madonna" begins. It is a story that stretches across boundaries of time – from 300 (+) years ago to today, rising up from the depths of God's Ocean.

The story of the Golden Madonna and Christ Child truly began when King Phillip reached the age of fifty-one. Mired in the mud of moral decay, he became desolate by the death of his first-born son..." "...and the untimely death of his beloved wife, Queen Isabella. He sank deeper into depression with feelings of guilt and remorse.

Fortunately, his inner torment drove him to religion, which led him to the acquaintance and influence of Sister Maria from the Convent de Agreda..." "...To Sister Maria, the King confessed in his letters and during long talks all the details of the errors in his life."

"...King Phillip wanted to return to God's laws. In his discussions with Maria de Agreda, they decided that he would prove his devotion by sharing his wealth with the Catholic church. He would do this by creating a piece of art that would be unmatched in history. Appropriately, this work of art would be in the form of the most revered Virgin Mary: The Madonna and her Christ Child. It would be cast in solid gold ...would be life size and possess a realistic look and manner. To further increase its untold value, the Madonna and Child would have two crowns placed on their heads to signify their exaltedness to heaven and God above. These crowns and statue would contain the crown jewels of the kingdom.

The Golden Madonna was to become King Phillip's symbol – one that he hoped would hold together all Christianity. He would stop at nothing to achieve a final victory.

Though his motives were honorable, they were not shared by others who were equally powerful. They, unfortunately, did not share the King's zeal for reform. It was becoming an internal war. And, like all wars, this one was going to cost a great deal of M*O*N*R*Y...."

Phillip's financiers were the ancestors of our present day banking system monsters, and they were about to foreclose on the King's accounts.

To avert this foreclosure, King Phillip had to win the war, for the good of the country, then place the statue of the Madonna and Christ

Child for all time to see the symbolism of his unselfish contribution to mankind."

"...The King also vowed to finance his personal wars from his own coffers. ... He was going to be honorable to the end. There was one problem: he forgot that selfish motivations begin in men's hearts. Phillip forgot to persuade his adversaries with LOVE. If he had, history would have been different in the matter. Antagonized by his self-centered goals, his peers became leery of his intent to carry on. Furthermore, they did not share his enthusiasm for reform in both spirituality and government. Sound familiar? Anyhow, Satan stayed in action in this affair, and managed to accomplish his goals..."

"Spain, worth millions because of all the gold wealth in the new world, fought the battles to the end. King Phillip had to make the payments this particular year, to regain credibility, because he was slipping in the Gallup polls of his day. He wanted to be sure of support in the northern provinces. His commands were a matter of fact in any case, as long as he was alive. He surely wasn't going to be the first Hapsburg King to lose a war for Spain, worse still lose the war for all of Christianity and its unity in the West. The life-size Golden Madonna and Christ statue was to be his saving gift. Unfortunately, although he was born-again, he failed to understand that he really needed nothing that money could buy. Only the free gift: LOVE. Had he loved his subjects, he could have won his worthy goals. All without a shot being fired. ."

"...So the story of King Phillip's Madonna becomes extremely interesting and full of adventure..."

The Elijah Message . . .

A WORD FROM THE HOLY SPIRIT AS RECEIVED, THIS SUMMER SEASON

EXODUS 23:20 "Shadow of" The New Jerusalem is on the horizon. One must be entering into GOD's Rest, and fully in HIS Theosis. Those with Faith in GOD's Word will follow HIM into HIS Rest, with love of HIM, who has commanded us into HIS Holy Sacraments. One, in The Body of Christ, must enter in this rest without ERROR, APOSTASY. . . HERESY. The leadership of the one true Ecclesia must pray, seek GOD's empowerment, and perfect assignment and will, such as Moses did in the wilderness. We now must be in the complete fullness of TRUTH of Apostolic first church faith. All who claim their being a part of Our LORD's body, must recognize, APOSTOLICITY IS A HEAVENLY CALLING OF THE HOLY BRETHREN OF OUR PROFESSION. . . Isaiah 28:7. 28:12. Hebrews 3:11, 18. "REST FROM ALL ERROR."

Brethren let us now define our LOVE for GOD. JOHN 14:21. "He that HATH my commandments, and KEEPETH them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him." . . . The operative words are HATH AND KEEPETH. To have is to KNOW. One cannot have unless he has the knowledge. One may never keep unless he possesses and has the truth. Apostasy and doctrine in the protestant reformers have gone bankrupt, and abandoned GOD's commandments, which are clearly THE HOLY SACRAMENTS. Commandments are synonymous with Sacraments of The Ecclesia. One must see he is disqualified, if he follows false doctrine & errs in his interpretation of GOD's Holy Word. As practiced by His first Apostles, Truth, were the Holy Sacraments. Some churches calling themselves the body of Christ are not. Identification because of their apparent love for Jesus, Our Lord, and their public display of it should be compared to above definition of one's love for Christ in Truth. How can one love Him without HATH AND KEEPETH of His commandments, as Jesus defined TRUE LOVE OF HIM and The FATHER'S reciprocity of LOVE for us?

THE GOLDEN CHALICE OF FATIMA. "In GOD's blood we have Salvation" Without salvation there is no life in us spiritually. JOHN 6:53 We have been commanded without doctrinal options to partake of His BLOOD & BODY, to be raised up on the last day. One may never be excused when His Word comes to us by His prophets first, without man's influence.

The Virgin Mother THEOTOKOS, was the Holy ARK, between Cherubims. The Madonna and Christ Child is our rebirth, with the Holy Cup of blessing our road to eternal spiritual life.

"In Jesus' Holy name. . . "A Golden Madonna and Christ Child will be place in the center of. . . Russia, symbolizing Her victory over satanic government of the world" The Spirit of Elias (Elijah) prophesizes the coming of our LORD's Parousia, couples with this victory. This is the Fatima message, Repent or fall with the enemies of CHRIST, Her Holy SON JESUS, who now is her GOD on the Throne, whose arm will fall on all error, apostasy, and shaded doctrines of a christianity no longer accepted by heaven's Throne."

One must now chose between the great deceptions emanating from the DIVISIONS OF SATAN in the true church, once ONE HOLY APOSTOLIC, now divided. 200 or 2000 years of experiential testing of truth? The seeds-residual, and were planted in Babylon the mystery whore, are now bearing their fruits, of the divided protestants, from the one TRUE ORTHODOX ECCLESIA. By one's own voluntary will to resist The Golden Chalice's Holy contents, betrays CHRIST, JOHN 6:64. . . "AND WALKS NO MORE WITH HIM". . . JOHN 6:66.

Can Christian Orthodoxy embrace New York, Geneva, The WCCC, World ecumenism? Can there be a plurality in the Holy Ecclesia of Orthodoxy, true to our tenets, and our Holy tradition, yet be caught in compromise with other apostates, being called brothers, uncanonical, yet Christians? Let us ask OUR LORD TO ANSWER THIS.
